

CANADA'S OLYMPIC DOUBLE GOLD BRINGS DOUBLE DISPLAYS FOR MARCH BREAK VISITORS AT HOCKEY HALL OF FAME

Artifacts from medal winning games at Sochi Olympics donated and displayed in time for March Break at the Hockey Hall of Fame

TORONTO (March 5, 2014) – Over a dozen countries donated more than 50 artifacts from the Olympic Men and Women's Gold, Silver and Bronze medal ice hockey games, which will make their permanent home at the Hockey Hall of Fame. Many artifacts will be featured in two new and separate displays that will pay tribute to the Sochi 2014 Olympic Winter Games in time for March Break visitors.

Featured items in the displays are a Carey Price jersey, Martin St. Louis helmet, Drew Doughty pants, Caroline Ouellette jersey, Amanda Kessel jersey, Tuukka Rask jersey, Jamie Benn gloves, bronze medal pucks, plus many more. Fans can re-live the spectacular Olympic moments featured in the displays from March 7th up to September 1st, 2014.

"The Hockey Hall of Fame is always appreciative of donations from any championship" said Pat Quinn, Chairman of the Hockey Hall of Fame. "I know from competing at the Olympic level, how important these games are, and how important these pieces of hockey history are to our visitors from around the world."

You can celebrate hockey at the Olympics and Canada's dominance in hockey at the Hockey Hall of Fame – for all March Break activities, please visit HHOF.com for full details.

About the Hockey Hall of Fame

The Hockey Hall of Fame (“HHOF”) was established in 1943 to honour and memorialize individuals who have brought special distinction to the game of hockey and those who made outstanding contributions to the development and advancement of hockey anywhere in the world, and to collect, research, preserve, exhibit and promote objects, images and other historical materials connected with the game at all levels. As a not-for-profit corporation and registered charity, HHOF owns and operates a museum and place of entertainment offering state-of-the-art exhibits, multimedia presentations and educational programming from its premises at Brookfield Place, Toronto, Canada.
